Bangalore: Backed by an inspirational message of support from Newcastle United legend Alan Shearer, the third edition of the Parikrma Champions League U-16 football tournament will kick-off from September 16-20 at the Bangalore Football Stadium.

Thirteen schools from Bangalore and three outstation teams from Mumbai, Goa and Kerala will set the ball rolling in a league-cum-knockout format for the Equality Cup, which was unveiled by former sprint queen Ashwini Nachappa. The tournament, sponsored by Menzies Aviation and co-hosted by the Karnataka State Football Association, will also feature leading CEOs from various companies across the city in an exhibition match against Parikrma XI on the final day.

"This year, all the participating kids underwent an age verification test at Manipal Hospital to rule out overage candidates and ensure fair play," Parikrma Humanity Foundation Founder-CEO Shukla Bose said. The tournament will be inaugurated by state agriculture minister Krishna Byre Gowda on Sunday.

The teams: From Bangalore: DPS North, Vidyaniketan, TRIO World School, Karnataka Vidyashala, Kendriya Vidyalaya, Hebbal, St. Joseph Indian High School, Parikrma Centre for Learning, Legacy School, Ryan International School, Inventure Academy, Greenwood High, Presidency School, The International School Bangalore. Outstation: St Michael's School, Kannur, Gokuldham High School, Mumbai, Father Agnel, Goa. TNN
