

School health awards

✧ Parikrma Humanity Foundation, an NGO, invites applications from Bengaluru based schools to participate in the Parikrma Address School Health Awards which recognises innovative health practices implemented by schools in the City. Registration has started and the last date for sending applications is January 10, 2015.

The awards will be presented on February 7, 2015. Schools will be judged on various categories like active programmes for counselling and mental health, innovative health education curriculum, physical activity for healthy living, good nutrition practices and schools whose students have promoted health and sanitation in the community. For registration and details, log onto www.school-healthawards.com