Parikrama, A School in Bangalore For Underprivileged Children, Is Scoring On Fields Across India

Prajwal Hegde

Parikrama has thrived in Bangalore's bustling sports scene, winning accolades and capturing the attention of the city's underprivileged children. This school, which specializes in football, has become a beacon of hope for children from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Among the many footballers emerging from Parikrama, there is a particular young talent who has caught the eye of many. His name is Thewa Kippal, and his story is one of determination and hard work.

Thewa Kippal, a 16-year-old footballer, joined Parikrama at the age of 12. The school's facilities and coaching staff provided him with the necessary training and support to hone his skills. Within a year, he was selected for the Bangalore Under-14 team, a significant achievement in itself.

The journey for Thewa didn't end there. He continued to excel, and by the time he was 16, he had already represented Bangalore at the state level. His talent and dedication were noticed by the Football Development Foundation of Karnataka (FDFK), which awarded him a scholarship to further his education and continue his football career.

Thewa's success is not just limited to the football field. He is also an excellent student, balancing his academic and sporting commitments with ease. His performance in the classroom has earned him a place in the Bangalore Under-16 team, where he continues to showcase his skills.

Thewa's journey is a testament to the impact Parikrama has had on the lives of its students. The school's focus on football has not only helped countless children from disadvantaged backgrounds to realize their dreams but has also contributed to the growth and development of Bangalore's football scene.

Parikrama's success story is a reminder of the power of education and the importance of investing in the lives of underprivileged children. It is a shining example of how a school can transform the lives of its students and make a significant impact on the broader community.